ACTOR FINNEY, WHO DIED IN FIRE,

Announcement Just Made That He Had Married Only Month Before Tragic End.

FRIENDS DIDN'T KNOW.

In the spring Mr. Finney was taken marriage was revealed to-day in an announcement made by Finney's executorix, Miss Ada Dwyer, the actress. Miss Dwyer's statement, made at the Harlem theatre where she is appearing in "The Deep Purple," was issued on cabled instructions from Paris from Mrs. Finney. The marriage took place in London on July 12 a short time after Mr. Finney's Miss Jex, however, that it was best for the while the presuded Miss Jex, however, that it was best for the while the presuded Miss Jex, however, that it was best for the while the marriage was revealed to-day in an announced the warring she was his widow. She attended the cremation of Mr. Finney's body, and even Mr. and Mrs. William Faversham, who were there and were among Mr. Finney's closest friends, didn't know of the wedding. They thought Miss Jex was merely a friend of Mr. Finney who happened to be in London."

HAD SECRET BRIDE

The marriage took place in London on July 12 a short time after Mr. Finney's arrival. He left America for a trip in Europe because of poor health. The secrecy maintained is explained by Miss Jex, however, that it was best for her to take another boat. She agreed and sailed with her mother and her secrecy maintained is explained by Miss Davier as having been due to the actor's parted, on the same ship with Miss Davier as having been due to the actor's parted, on the same ship with Miss grief over the death on April 22 of his
